11:50 AM	JUH7 Taku Glacier Helicopter and Airboat Adventure Tour duration: approx. 3:30 Hours / Moderate Enjoy an eagle's eye view of the Tongass National Forest, flying high over the rainforest, passing glaciers in the Juneau Icefield, mountain peaks, and deep valleys, from a six-passenger helicopter that lands atop the Taku Glacier for a thrilling, guided walkabout. You'll be outfitted with all you need to safely explore the glacier. As you walk on the icy surface, you'll discover the glacier, the thickest, deepest, and most remote of the world's glaciers, in a state of constant change, seeing blue ice-melt pools, crevasses, moraines, and seracs, and learning from your naturalist guide all about the glacier's history and ecology. Photo opportunities are plentiful here, so keep your camera at the ready. Back on land, you'll board an airboat on the Taku River to view the mighty Taku Glacier from another spectacular venue, this time getting close to its face, and seeing where the glacier ends, deeply embedded in the river. Notes: There is no maximum weight, but passengers weighing more than 240 pounds will be assessed a $100 surcharge and will be provided additional space in the helicopter. Guests must be able to wear the provided seat belt. This tour is not wheelchair accessible.		$630.00 Per Person
9:15 AM	JU69 Dog Sledding Adventure on the Norris Glacier by Helicopter Tour duration: approx. 3 Hours / Moderate Take to the skies above Juneau aboard a helicopter and fly off to a dog sledding experience on the Norris Glacier. After a bit of flightseeing, zoom off to the Norris Glacier. Marvel as your pilot touches down on the snowy surface and step out onto an otherworldly landscape. The Norris Glacier is home to a remote camp, only accessible via helicopter, that's manned by veterans of the legendary Alaskan Iditarod Sled Dog Race. You'll meet up with these experts for an interactive dog sledding experience. Then, feel the thrilling sensation of skidding across the snow covered terrain pulled by a team of Alaskan Huskies. After your adventure, take to the air once again for the panoramic flight home. Notes: Guests over 240lbs with clothing will have to pay a $100 surcharge. Min. age 2 years old. Over boots provided.
